Introduction to Flameworking

Five week class

All classes are from 5:30pm to 8pm
Thursdays, November 1 - December 6. (No Class on November 22 in observation of Thanksgiving)

Instructor: Pam Wilcox

Cost: $175 plus glass & materials

No Experience Necessary

Ages 12 & up

In this fun and progressive class, students learn about flameworking tools, equipment and safety, working with and selecting "soft glass" and the basics of beadmaking. Explore a broad range of flameworking techniques: pulling stringer for adding dots and other details, making twistys, incorporating silver and frit as design elements, using presses to shape beads and more. A new technique will be demonstrated each week followed by practice time.

Class Policies

Registration and 50% deposit required to hold your spot. Deposits are refundable or transferable to another class up to two weeks before the class starts. Payment in full is required on the first day of class. Make-ups for missed classes: As a general rule, make-ups must be made up on the same week number in the next class or with special permission, on a future class. For example, if you miss week 2 of the Beginner/Intermediate Stained Glass class and there is still space available in the next beginner class, you can come to week 2 the next time the class is offered. Work with the instructor or a cashier in the store to confirm. If a class does not have a minimum number of sign-ups paid by one week before the class starts, the class is canceled and your money is refunded or credited toward a future class of your choosing.

Questions or to sign up for a class, please call 207-213-4126.
